

WHITE GRASS DUDE RANCH
LIQUIDATION AUCTION

Saturday, September 14: 10 am - Furniture, fixtures, etc.
Sunday, September 15: 10 am - Horses, tack

Due to the recent passing of long-time dude rancher, Frank Galey, the historic White Grass Ranch will become part of Grand Teton National Park. Nona Galey has commissioned L.D. Frome to liquidate the business assets of the ranch. A unique offering:

HORSES & LIVESTOCK: Over 80 horses—gentle riding horses, yearlings, colts and a stud. Over 20 cattle including a registered Longhorn bull.

SADDLES & TACK: Over 70 western saddles (some antiques), bridles, pads, bells, packsaddles, panniers, new horseshoes, etc., etc.

FURNITURE & FIXTURES: Everything from the dining hall, guest and crew cabins, kitchen, bakery, laundry, office, recreation hall, barns, shops—commercial ovens, mixers, washers, range, etc. All dishes, silver, pots & pans, etc. All beds, tables, chairs, drapes, linens, wood stoves, etc. to accommodate over 70 guests and a large crew. (Much of the furniture is lodgepole construction.)

MISC.: Antique buggy, juke box, slate pool table, 5" mainline aluminum pipe, 4" lateral, propane tank, 3 horse trailers, diesel tractor, pickups, tools, welders, farm machinery, wood splitter, 3 wheel ATV, IBM typewriter, big game heads and horns, a 1974 Mercury (mint with 33,000 mi), etc., etc. Hundreds of other items—something for everyone.

SPECIAL: The current dude list of over 1000 names may be offered for sale at the auction. Call L.D. Frome for details.

TERMS: Cash • Visa • Mastercard • Check (with proper I.D.)

COME TO OUR AUCTION if you want to outfit a dude ranch, a bakery, a hunting camp, a cafe or motel; want to furnish a home in authentic historic western decor; buy a "foolproof" horse for your child; buy an authentic Porter, Hereford, or Heiser using saddle; buy an unusual game trophy, an antique buggy, or just want to own a memento of Jackson Hole's colorful dude history. Watch future ads for more details or call for a brochure.
